VENICE - PERFECT STORM

APR. 20 - NOV.24 2024

In their collaborative project titled PERFECT STORM, artists Katrin Fridriks and Jan Kaláb have achieved a fusion of their unique artistic styles, resulting in captivating artworks characterized by vibrant movement and color. Through a process of exchanging paintings between their studios in the south of France and Prague, they have collaborated closely, enhancing and refining each other's contributions to create a seamless partnership. The electric collaboration presented by Swiss gallery, BC Gallery joins the group show, Personal Structures – Beyond Boundaries, hosted by ECC, European Cultural Centre.

Imagine if you could unlock a universal secret a principle so fundamental that it bridges the gap between the Microcosm & the Macrocosm, this is the essence of the Hermetic principles of ancient wisdom 'As Above So Below' this principle provides a lens to comprehend the intricate Dance of the Cosmos & our place within it, it invites us to see the harmonious interconnectedness of all things & empowers us to harness this understanding for personal growth, what if you could decipher the patterns of the stars in the palm of your hand or the secrets of the universe in a single atom, understanding the principle of Correspondence.

'Perfect Storm' presented with BC Gallery started with numerous shows in Basel, Swiss 2023.

Quindici Artisti Dieci Anni di Galleria

April 11 – June 7, 2024

Dellupi Arte is delighted to announce the opening of its new exhibition space, with a group show dedicated to the gallery's ten years of activity and research. The exhibition brings together the works of 15 artists who have most represented the gallery's research during its 10 years of activity. Running from April 11 through June 7, the exhibition '15 x 10 quindici artisti – dieci anni di galleria' brings together the works of artists promoted and supported by Dellupi Arte, hosting Masters of modern art and contemporary artists who have most characterised the gallery's path.

Founded in 2014 and specialising mainly in Italian and international abstract and informal art, Dellupi Arte opens the doors of its new location by reliving through the work of 15 artists the gallery's a decade-long journey, starting with the most significant artists of the postwar period and ending with the present day.

Exploring the Spectrum of Abstract Forces

May 24 - July 14, 2024

Galerie Sept is thrilled to announce this unique exhibition bringing together four contemporary artists, each employing abstraction to forge a visual and conceptual symphony. While some artworks may carry titles, the central ethos of this exhibition is to encourage viewers to look beyond these labels and engage directly with the art itself, free from the preconceptions that titles might impose. This approach not only emphasizes the aesthetic and sensory experiences but also fosters personal interpretations, allowing the viewer's own experiences, emotions, and ideas to shape their understanding of each piece.

Last but not least, we want to talk about the Icelandic artist Katrin Fridriks, who is part of this exhibition with two extraordinary pieces that in the curating of the exhibition link all artists together. Her contributions exemplify how fundamental experiences can be both articulated and experienced through abstract art.
